A hand-drawn map on a piece of paper. At the bottom right, an arrow points right towards the text 'To River'. From this point, a path leads up a steep, shaded slope. At the top of this slope is a circular area labeled 'Thorn Bush', which is filled with many small, jagged lines representing thorns. From the top of the 'Thorn Bush', a long, curved arrow points upwards and to the left, following the curve of a steep hill. Along this curved arrow, the text 'Power up jump!' is written in a cursive, handwritten style.
